ISSUE 119

SEPTEMBER 1978

Saturday 9th September 1978 will, we hope, prove to be a day to remember for all the residents of our village. At 1.45 p.m., prior to the village fete, Mrs. Margaret Shaw of the Cambridgeshire County Council will formally lay the foundation stone of our new Village Hall. This will be followed at 2.00 p.m. by the official opening of the fete by the Cambridge City Jazzband with our own Dave Barrett.

The afternoon programme will include a gymnastics display by the Cambridge and District Gymnastics Club, a ballet display by the pupils of Maureen Sing, and, hopefully, an Air Display by members of Marshalls Flying Club. Throughout the afternoon on the Village Green there will be stalls, sideshows, games and exhibits put on by most of the village organisations and clubs, plus the Horticultural Society's Autumn Show from 2.00 p.m. onwards in the School.

For the children - we want entries for a Fancy Dress competition to be judged at 3.00 p.m., and for the more energetic adults we still need competitors for the Tug of War and Village Road Race.

Do remember the date - 9th September - come along and raise money for the Village Children's Christmas parties!

All copy for the October edition of the News to Mervyn Pope by 20th September 1978.

BAR HILL RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION AGENDA

Meeting to be held Tuesday 5th September in the Green Hut at 8.00 p.m.

Apologies for absence

1. Minutes of last meeting and meeting of 6th June. -
2. Matters arising. -
3. Subscriptions - present position. -
4. Treasurer's report. -
5. Secretary's correspondence. -
6. Good Neighbours. -
7. Village Hall Building/Management Committee report.-
8. Pete sub-committee report. -
9. Bar Hill News Editor's report. -
10. Parish Council report. -
11. Any other business.

All villagers are reminded that this is an open meeting, and all villagers are invited to attend.

RUBBISH

Despite the reminder in the July edition of the News that there is a rubbish skip adjacent to the Farm House, some thoughtless individuals are still dumping rubbish around the perimeter road.

As this minority seems to ignore all pleas to respect the village in which we live, perhaps we could ask anyone seeing rubbish being dumped to take the car number and pass it on to one of the Residents Association Committee.

TESCO TROLLEYS

Would all, and this is stressed again, all villagers borrowing trolleys from Tesco's, please return them and not leave them all round the village. If not it could happen that trolleys will be retained on Tesco premises, and a small minority will have spoilt things for the majority.

BAR HILL PARISH COUNCIL NOTES

The monthly meeting was held in the Green Hut on Tuesday 15th August.

Maintenance Report

All grass cutting and flailing is up to date. Unfortunately trees are still being damaged.

Boundary Changes

The Council is attempting to alter the existing Parish boundaries to take in Fairway 2 and part of Phase 9. Negotiations are taking place with Dry Drayton Parish Council.

Planning

1. Phases 11b and c have been slightly revised.
2. An extra bedroom for a bungalow in Foxhollow.
3. Unit 15 of Trafalgar Way - application to change from warehouse to industrial use. The Council were not happy with this application and needed more details before making a final decision.

Sale of Freeholds

All households, apart from Appletrees, should now have received details of how to purchase their freeholds. We hope as many people as possible will take advantage of this offer.

Village Hall

On 9th September at 1.45 p.m. (before the fete) Mrs. Margaret Shaw of Cambridgeshire County Council will formally lay the foundation stone of the new Village Hall. To mark this event, we hope to organise a small presentation to the youngest and oldest inhabitants of the village. We invite everyone in the village to come and take part in the stone laying before going on to the fete.

Play Equipment

The rocking boat in the play area near the school is faulty. There is no danger if the equipment is used properly, but we would ask older children not to use the equipment until it is mended. Small children under parental control can still safely use the boat.

Bus Timetables

There will be slight alterations to the bus timetables in September/October. New timetables will be posted at the bus stops two to three days before the changes occur.

Next Meeting

The next meeting will be at 8.00 p.m. in the Green Hut on Tuesday 19th September. Mr. Burton of Bar Hill Developments will be present, and one of the items on the Agenda will be "The Land and Properties of the Parish Council."

VILLAGE FETE 9th SEPTEMBER 1978

Please Note:- There will be a meeting of all stall holders at 10.00 a.m. on 9th September at the rear of the school to decide whether the fete will be set up on the Green or (in the event of bad weather) in the back-up areas.

BHRA Stall - Ladies, if you have time to make cakes or sweets for this stall, please contact Mrs. Burlton (telephone 80987).

Tug Of War

We would ideally like volunteers for this event prior to the fete, but if not, be warned, you may be "press-ganged" on the day!

Manfred, 68 Pheasant Rise

Village Road Race

Response to this has so far been poor - the rumours that Brendan Foster is taking part are just not true. There is still time to enter for this race for all age groups, i.e.

- 1) 14 and under
- 2) 15-39
- 3) 40 and over.

We have had an entry from a member of the fairer sex - I hope she puts some of you male joggers to shame! If you want to enter, either fill in the form in the August issue of the News, or write your name, address and age group on a piece of paper and deliver to Mervyn, 3 Foxhollow (together with 20p).

BAR HILL FERMENTERS' GUILD

The Guild is a well-established and lively organisation which usually meets on the first Tuesday of the month throughout the greater part of the year. Its Committee arranges annual home-made beer and wine competitions, invites speakers on various topics, organises brewery visits and darts matches in local public houses, and is responsible for a yearly barbeque and New Year party. The Guild is sympathetic towards, but in no way officially associated with, the Campaign for Real Ale. Further details will be available at our stand at the Village Fete on Saturday 9th September.

Our AGM will be held in the school on Tuesday 3rd October at 8.30 p.m. The membership fee currently stands at £1 per year. Members may obtain a 10% price reduction on home fermenting materials.

We hope to see some of you in the near future.

FIREWORK NIGHT

Could we remind villagers that 5th November will soon be here, and that towards the end of September committee members will be calling on you for a donation towards the cost of fireworks. Please give generously to make this another good night.

Our next meeting is a Wine and Cheese evening in the school lounge on Thursday 7th September.

W.E.A. NEWS

Philosophy - man's search for sure and certain knowledge.

There are many questions that philosophers have tried to answer. Have any of them been satisfactorily answered?

How do we know that we exist?

What is justice?

What is equality?

Do we have a mind or just a brain?

We shall be trying to find out the answers to these and many more questions this autumn on Wednesday evenings. Starting on 13th September at 8.00 p.m. in Bar Hill School the course will run for 12 weeks. Anyone who would like more details can contact me to have a copy of the syllabus.

- 17e) Bee hives may be brought onto the site. (Please note that this allows only holders of cultivated plots to have bee hives on their plot. Plots will not be let solely for the purpose of siting bee hives.)

IN THE GREEN HUT 7.30 - 9.30 p.m.

MONTHLY RECIPE

Hot Fish Korma

Ingredients

1 lb cod (or any other white thick fish) cut into $1\frac{1}{2}$ " thick slices
1 large tin tomatoes
2 tbsps oil
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ tpsps chilli powder
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp jeera
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp ginger powder
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp black pepper
4 cardamom seeds (crushed)
2 cloves garlic (crushed)
1 carton plain yoghurt
1 large onion
1 tsp turmeric
 $\frac{3}{4}$ tsp coriander
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ tpsps salt
2 sticks cinnamon (approx $1\frac{1}{2}$ ")
4 cloves

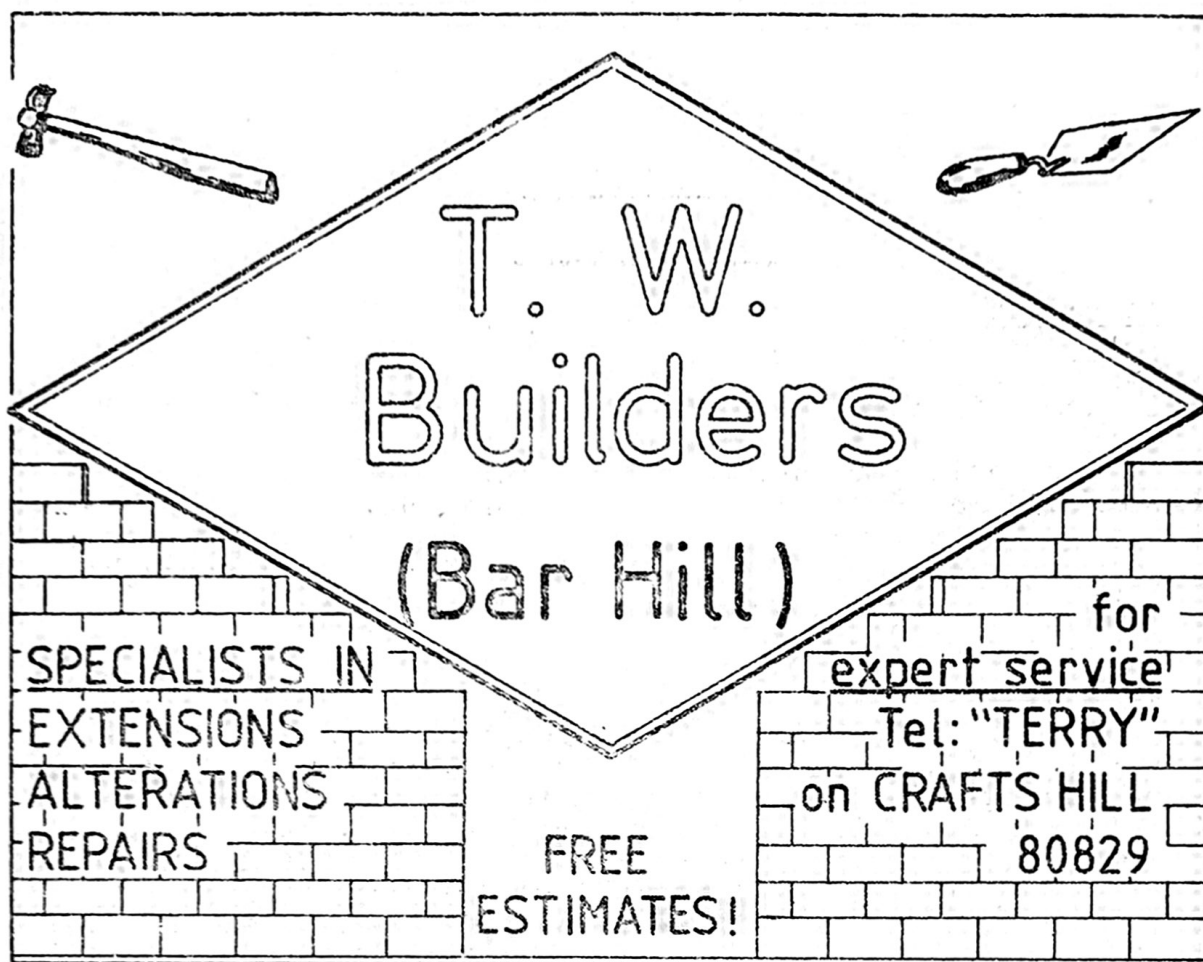

Method

Heat oil, slice onion and fry gently with garlic until a pale golden colour. Add the spices, salt and pepper and fry gently for about 2 minutes. Add tomatoes and simmer for 1 minute, making sure that the tomatoes are broken down. Add yoghurt, stir until well mixed, then drop in fish gently, making sure that it does not break up. Return to heat and bring almost to the boil, then simmer gently for about $\frac{3}{4}$ hour with lid slightly off to reduce sauce a little. Do not stir during cooking or the fish may break up. Just shake now and then to prevent burning. Serve with plain or fried rice and tomato salad.

Next month: Fried Prawn and Cabbage Curry.

BAR HILL SCOUT GROUP

Both the Cub packs and the Scout troop all had successful long weekends at a Cambridgeshire Camping Site in Thetford Forest in June and July this year.

The weather was very kind to us and the comprehensive programmes were all carried out. We have had very complimentary reports from the visiting District Commissioner, and my congratulations to all the Leaders concerned.

They in turn would like to express their appreciation to all the Mums and Dads who helped in various ways to make the weekends so enjoyable for the boys.

The Cub Packs and Troop all start their autumn programme in the week beginning 4th September, and our first group event is the Village Fete on the Saturday, when we hope to have our fair share of stalls and sideshows.

We welcome Pat Jones to the Aquarius Pack as an Assistant Cub Leader. We hope she enjoys her stay with us.

I hope all our readers had a good holiday.

BAR HILL NATIONAL HOUSEWIVES REGISTER

This month sees the first anniversary of the initial meeting which led to the establishment of Bar Hill N.H.R. There were three of us at that first discussion, and things have changed a lot since then. There are now about 20 paid up members, and several others have visited the group occasionally. Following N.H.R. policy, I am now relinquishing the job of Local Organiser and am being replaced by Mrs. Chris Avery, 23 Foxhollow (telephone 81233). I hope she finds the next year as encouraging as I have found the last one in helping to establish a meeting point for housewives who want to talk about things other than domestic matters. As we've got to know each other, our ability to do this has increased.

If you would like to join us, do come along to the September meetings:-

Tuesday 5th September. Visit to the Botanical Gardens. Depart 2.00 p.m. from the Mall. Transport to be arranged.
Tuesday 19th September A talk on Yoga by guest speaker Mrs. G. Wills. 8.00 p.m. at 44 Oatlands Avenue

I hope to see everyone then, and to welcome anyone else who is interested.
